NO COMPROMISE YET MADE.

Gilman Heirs Will Take No Definite Action Before the Hearing.

All the beirs now express confidence that Mrs. Helen Hall has no legal basis for her claim to the estate. On that assumption, the relatives of full blood will have everything to gain by a division of the estate under the Connecticut law, which bars kindred of half blood.

We have not made any compromise yet and we do not expect any immediate action."

ENGINE BLOWN INTO RIVER.

Boiler of Locomotive Exploded-Three Men Killed.

Trenton, N. J., March 18.—The boiler of engine No. 628 on the Lehigh Valley Rall-road exploded this morning while the engine was pulling a coal train near Mud Run and three men were killed.

The engine was blown into the Lehigh River and the men instantly killed. The train was not affected and ran for some distance without the engine.

It is not known what caused the boiler to explode, as it was a comparatively new one.

JOYCE AND TEBEAU.

Old Ball Players Wanted to Give Evidence in Suit of Lave Cross Against Philadelphia Club.

THE WITNESSES EXPLAINED.

Tebeau Said That He Had Not Been Personally Served-Joyce Denied That He Had Ever Seen a Deputy Sheriff.

Lave Cross's long-standing suit against the Philadelphia Baseball Club for back salary, which he claimed is due him since 1897, was tried in Judge Spencer's court yesterday. William A. Kinnerk, Cross's attorney, took a nonsult, with permission to have the same set aside later on. Mr. Kinnerk was suing for himself on Cross's assigned claim. The action was brought on an alleged contract whereby Cross claimed that he was to receive the amount sued for, in addition to his regular pay, on certain conis evident that no compromise has yet been ditions. It was claimed in defense that Cross did not comply with the conditions.

The trial yesterday resulted in a complication in regard to some witnesses who to appear. Subpoenas were issued for Oliver Tebeau and William Joyce, the ex-players, who are conducting a local saloon.

Deputy Sheriff Peter Schilling stated that he went to the saloon and inquired for them; that two men were pointed out to him by the barkeeper as Tebeau and Joyce, and that he served the papers. Schilling said that each of the men whom he served claimed, before he left the saloon, that he was not the man named in the subpoena.

Tebeau and Joyce did not appear yesterday, and attachments were Issued for them. Tebeau was brought in. He denied that he bad been personally served. Schilling was called, but could not state whether he was the man that he had served. Joyce was not found, Judge Spencer gave orders to continue the search for Joyce, and also to have the barkeeper brought to court. The matter was laid over until to-day.

Mr. Joyce said last night that he had never seen any Deputy Sheriff, nor had he received any subpoena.

GETS AN OFFER FROM BOSTON. Bill Lange Tendered $5,000 Salary, but Tarms It Down.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

San Francisco, Cal., March 13.—Bill Lange, formerly star center fielder of the Chicago club, has been offered $5.00 salary and $500 expense money by the manager of the Boston team to play with the Hubbites next season.

the Boston team to play with the Hubbites next season.

Lange, who had already refused liberal inducements to captain and play first base in San Francisco, received a telegram from the city of beans yesterday asking him to set a figure at which he would don a Boston uniform. Wishing to convince the manager at once that there was no hope of his accepting any offer, he wired back $5.000. To his surprise, he received a reply that his demand was excessive, but he would be paid $5.000, and later $500 for expenses was added, but Lange refused to entertain the proposition. ertain the proposition.

He is nicely installed in business here and does not care to get back into the game, but if Boston wants him bad enough to put up his demand, he feels that he will be forced to keep his promise.

GOSSIP OF THE BASEBALL PLAYERS. O'Connor Going Where He Will Get

New York has bought Pitcher Sparks from Pittsburg. Davis gets a very promis-ng young man, indeed. Sparks is a much better pitcher than most people imagine.

Charley Nichols, the great "Nic," has signed his twelfth successive contract with the Boston League club. Nichols is without doubt the greatest pitcher that ever stepped into a box.

Bradley, the young third baseman, has jumped the Chicago League club and signed with the Cleveland American club. Bradley gets $2,800, it is said. He is a good fielder, but scarce looks a $2,800 man at the Jimmy Callahan, the Chicago pitcher, passed through St. Louis on his way to Hot Springs last night. Callahan is about the best looking man, fastest runner, cleverest fielder and hardest hitting pitcher in the same.

Pat Flaherty is back from Hot Springs, where he spent two weeks getting into condition for the coming season. Patruccio says that Jack O'Connor is looking very well. O'Connor has many offers from the American League clubs. "Jack always was a man to get the money." says Flaherty, "and he will go where he can get it thickest."

Jim Hart of Chloago stimatized Clark Grimth as a contract jumper of whom the Chloago club is well rid. "I have been try-ing to trade Grimth for a bat bag for four years," said Mr. Hart, "but no team would have him. He is a great pitcher, but a dis-organizer and an anarchist." That is true, maybe, but on ten years' work in the Na-tional League no pitcher has any the best of Mr. Grimth.

tional League no pitcher has any the best of Mr. Griffith.

Mr. Donovan is expected in town any day. He will take up the raveled thread of local baseball affairs just as soon as he arrives Donovan probably will spend a day or two in Pittsburg, visiting old friends, and a couple of days in Cleveland, talking business with Mr. Robison before he comes to St. Louis. Then he may visit a player or so before he comes here. By the time he does all this it will be April I, and the season will be upon him.

"I never was quite so good in all my life." writes that Titan of strong-hearted pitchers, George Cuppy, from his home at Elikhardt, Ind. "I have been working a bit right through the winter with Criger. We have had the run of a big engine-house and have made the most of it. I never was in better condition. My arm feels very good. You remember I did not pitch bad ball last season. After I left St. Louis and went to Boston, I won seven straight games. The Boston people began cutting expenses. Of course, they were not going to let crack youngsters like Dineen and Willis go and keep an old timer like me. So I ambled. It was then late in the season and a resolved that I would not accept another engagement that fall. I am not under contract or reserve to any club in any league. I am free to sign where I please. Criger is in great condition. He has taken the very best care of himself. All he did during the winter was fondle the twins, Harold and Ruth. They are now 2 years old and make a pretty pair of dumb-bells or Indian clubs for papa. I do not know that Criger is going to Boston. If he is, he has not said anything about it to me. I guess these transactions are secret ones."

"After all the talk that has been made about the American League pirating players

"After all the talk that has been made about the American League pirating players from the National, the only American League team which has secured—according to report—any number of good National League players is Boston," says J. U. Hunt, "That club seems to have the pick of the St. Louis and Boston National League players corralled. I do not know how true all this is. I cannot afford to take chances of getting varicose veins in my brain from trying to follow the deals and counter deals made by these clubs, but I figure this thing out this way: Charles Bomers, the owner of the Boston American League club, is a Cleveland man. He was a fan when Robison had his great team in Cleveland. He knew Young, O'Connor, Powell, Criger, Heidrick, and all that crowd. Now, it is said, he has signed them all. He also is supposed to have signed Collins, Tenney, Dineen and other Boston players. As it stands just now the Boston club is the only one in the League that looks strong. I saw a great, big boost in a paper for the Chicago club the other day. It was called a world-beater, with Heidrick, Hoy and Me-Farland in the field, Sugden and Wood catchers, and Padden, Shugart, Dillard and Isbell in the infield. Wouldn't that kill you? I do not see that Delehanty, Lajole, Burkett, Keeler, Kelly, Jennings, Wagner, or any of that lot have gone to the American. Not that I am playing favorites, but from the facts at hand, I don't see where the American League has done such things as they claim it has."

GOSSIP OF THE GOLF LINKS. St. Louis Golfers Pleased With the

Honors Showered Upon McGrew. J. H. Taylor, open champlon of England, has accepted the challenge of "Jack" White of Scaford for a home-and-home match of either $250 or $500 a side, as the latter may elect. The match is to be played off before Harvard's prospects for a winning team this year are encouraging. Of last year's players J. C. Averill, C. R. Henderson, C. Tiffany Richardson, H. Lindsley and W. Wadsworth are back, and the new material is said to be showing up well. The ninehole course at Riverside is bettig put in shape and will be used for early practice.

George Low, the professional of the Dyker Meadow Golf Club, and Bernard Nicholi, the conqueror of Varion, met in a thirty-six-hole match at Miami on Saturday, and, after a closely contested fight, finished all square. Low was three up with only four to play, but Nicholl finished in par golf, and succeeded in squaring matters at the thirty-fifth hole. The medal scores were: Low, 80, 83–163, and Nicholl, 82, 82– 164. At Palm Beach, A. H. Fenn and 'Jamie' Douglas, the Oakland professional, played an interesting match, the former winning by one up.

It seems that a really first-class Irish golfer has been at last discovered. The San Francisco Call says: "The identity of F. R.
Riley, the first-class professional instructor of the Burlingame Golf Club, has at last been established. He is not a Scotchman, contrary to the regular rule, but an American born at Cleveland, O. He has been playing the game for six years and is a marvelously graceful player. Surely no prettier exhibition of golf was ever given than that of Riley and Smith, who, when playing for the seventh hole at the Presidio last Tuesday, were over the bunker and on the green in two, bota then holing out in three.

According to Golf Illustrated, a profes sional has brought out a steel-faced driver that seems to have merit. It is in all respects like an ordinary driver, except that it has a "leather" of some com-position let into the center of the face in that he had been personally served. Schilling was called, but could not state whether he was the man that he had served. Joyce was not found. Judge Spencer gave orders to continue the search for Joyce, and also to have the barkeeper brought to court. The matter was laid over until to-day.

Mr. Joyce said last night that he had never seen any Deputy Sheriff, nor had he received any subpoena.

"He must be a bird of a St. Louisan who does not know me," said Joyce. "It thought I was as well known in St. Louis as the statue of Genera! Grant. As for me refusing to go to court and testify for Lave Cross, I could not do it. I never did like those chib owners, and if I could get Lave a piece of money I would do it. Of course, I hate to leave my place of business, for some of my friends might be coming in broke and in need of a stake or a drink, and I might miss them and they might go without the drink or without the stake and that would hurt my feelings so that I could not sleep at night.

"That's why I hate to leave the shop to go anywhere; but to assist a ball player I would go to court if every friend of mine had to buy his own drinks and go borrow money from some one else. Don't stand for any of those 'stalls' from those deputies. If I see a deputy coming in to take me to court for Lave Cross, I will first buy him wine, then take him over and feed him, treat him to a cigar, and then go to court and get the money for Lave. You be that when Wille goes to court to get money had comes back with the goods on him."

GETS AN OFFER FROM BOSTOX. it is safe to say all long-driving records would be easily broken.

"I. Louis gelfers feel complimented by the appointment of George S. McGrew, president of the Gien Echo Clab, to the directorate of the Western Golf Association. The position, like all golf positions, is, of course, purely honorable. It is one, however, in which a man of Mr. McGrew's ability for work and love of golf can do a lot of good. This being so, it is quite certain that Mr. McGrew will do a lot of good. That he righteously carned the honors put upon him no one can gainsay. With the possible exception of Mr. McCreery, no man has done more to advance the interests of golf in St. Louis than Mr. McGrew. It was his idea that put the Glen Echo Club on the map. It was his brain that gave birth to the idea of an international golf championship, an idea that was first hooted by Eastern golfers, but which is now accepted with oralse and thanks. This idea of Mr. McGrew's brought St. Louis and the proposed World's Fair more beneficent advertising than anything else that has been done so far. Mr. McGrew combines all the push and advanced ideas of the up-to-date American with the caution and judgment of the veteran Scotch golfer. It is quite certain that his appointment to the W. G. A. will mean a deal to golf in St. Louis. He is up to date, progressive and a fine judge of free advice.

ST. LOUIS PUGILIST WON. Eddie McFarland Defeated Fred Dimmitt at Kansas City.

Jack Daly of Wilmington says he won't train for any more long fights, but will take on a six-round bout now and then if he can get a chance against a good man. Charley McKeever leaves to-day for Waterbury, Conn., to finish training for his fight with Joe Walcott at that place on Thursday night, March 21. McKeever looks in fine shape and believes he can outpoint the tough little negro.

Articles of agreement signed by Peter

Maher and Tom Sharkey call for a fight within six weeks, no particular place being specified. The duration of the bout is to be twenty-five rounds and the winner is to get 60 per cent of the gate receipts.

Prominent sporting men of Boston have selected Bermuda as the Mecca of boxers, and a clubbouse will be opened there, to be managed by John L. Suilivan. Two athletic managers left yesterday for Bermuda to arrange a match between "Kid" McCoy and Tommy Ryan for an #8,000 purse as the first big event on the island.

George Gardiner, who now refers to himself as the "middle-weight champion of Great Britain," has issued a challenge to Tommy Ryan, Kid McCoy and Jack Root. Gardiner has overlooked one promising man. Jimmy Handler is the person referred to, and he gave Gardiner an overwhelming beating at the Hercules Athletic Club not so very long ago. Gardiner should lose no time in issuing a challenge to Handler, and, having beaten the Newark boy, he might turn his attention to Kid Carter, Tommy West and some others in that division.

In one of the prettiest fights seen in Kansas City in many a day, Eddle McFarland of St. Louis knocked out Fred Dimmit in the eleventh round. McFarland was more clever than his opponent, but Dimmitt, while he could connect but seldom, had a vicious left, which kept the St. Louis boy from mixing matters. McFarland weighed 180 and Dimmitt a few pounds more. Throughout the fight McFarland jabbed Dimmitt in the neck and head with his left, occasionally whipping his right across for a staggering blow on the jaw. After the eighth round he began playing for the body and, kept it up until the end. The first three rounds were clearly McFarland's, Dimmitt going to the floor once in each round, but in the fourth the kid falled to duck the fierce left and went down for the count. Dimmitt had his man going and McFarland saved himself only by repeatedly clinching. He gradually regained his strength, and in the eleventh put Dimmitt down repeatedly, and finally out with a terrific right on the jaw.

Of the seven that started, only four finished, the others fallng during the running of the race. The heavy rain of last night kept the field in terrible shape. Lou Woods, a good thing, took the four-and-a-half-furiong scramble for 2-year-olds in easy fashion from the favorite, Blue Ridge, who was poorly ridden.

The fourth at a mile was only a pleasant pastime for the favorite, Swordsman, who ran over his field when ready and won in a romp by four lengths from J. H. Barnes.

Velma Clark, the ravorite, took the closing event in a drive from Virgle D'Or, a 50-to-1 shot.

Chicago, Ill., March 13.—Though the Worth authorities have refused the dates so far allotted to them by the Western Jockey Club they have by no means stopped work on the track and buildings. Sam and Ei Wagner visited the grounds yesterday and averaged themselves as highly pleased. Wagner visited the grounds yesterday and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the condition of affairs there. In answer to a question as to whether their visit had been made for the purpose of stopping work temporarily. Sam Wagner said: "Certainly not. We will go shead the same as usual, and expect to have things completed at the time we mentioned. The track, of course, is muddy and cannot be used just now, but the roads we have built around are in excellent condition. The grand stand and other buildings are progressing well, and I was satisfied with my visit."

"Do you know anything about the work on the Delmar track?"
"Not personally, for I have not seen it. The same architect, however, who is building our grand stand is constructing the one at Delmar. He received a letter from his son, who is in charge there, saying that the work is being pushed. The iron is all on the ground, an extra $3.500 having been paid for a rush order. Most of it is up, and in fact it is so far advanced that carpenters have begun on the woodwork. He is confident that everything will be ready to open at the time announced."

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

San Francisco, Cal., March 13.—Doctor Cave, the extreme outsider in the fourth race at Tanforan to-day, won at the tempting price of 40 to 1. Toah was the favorite, while Tuthill came in for very strong play at 8 to 5. Thorpe rushed to the front with Doctor Cave at the very start, and was never headed, winning by a length from Tuthill, who only managed to beat Redwald a nose for the place. Toah ran very strongly till they were fifty yards from the wire, and then faded away.

Bard of Avon was heavily played for a good thing in the fifth, and landed the money in a drive, Bonnie Lissak getting the place.

Valencienne was made the favorite in the first, but McAlbert, who was as good as 10 to 1, won cleverly.

som, the second choice, was the next to go down, she tumbling at the sixth jump. With all of the principal contenders out of the race, Dick Furber, the even-money favorite, had no trouble in disposing of the others and won easily by ten lengths from Divertisement, who secured the place by thirty lengths. The race was the biggest farce of the meeting.

The rain of last night played havoc with the track, and he feature of the day, the mile handleap for 3-year-olds, was declared off. Wild Pirate, the Crescent City Derby cardidate, was carded to start in the event, but his fondness for the going frightened the other starters out.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

San Francisco, Cal., March 13.—Jockey mounts before his departure for the East, but to satisfy Oakland people that he had no reached this decision as a result of being given second position in a very close race Saturday, he consented to ride a race to-day. He had the mount on Horton, the even money favorite in the fifth event. Loving Cup cut out the going into the stretch, when Bullman took Horton up and assumed the lead. At the Paddock Horton seemed to slow up and Loving Cup, who was coming gamely all the time, poked her nose in front and went under the wire first, although Bullman got Horton going and nand would have won in another jump. but his fondness for the going frightened the other starters out.

The first race was also declared off. The card was made up of poor horses and the races were very tame. Fizer & Co. carried off the honors by winning the first and fourth events, with Tom Collins and Swordsman, which were the two substituted races.

Jack Furrell, a local plunger, pulled off a clever coup with Linden Elia in the fifth race. The Texas-bred mare opened up at 10 to 1 and was played down to 4. She rewarded her backer by winning easily from the favorite, Trebor.

The first race was only a gallop for Tom Collins, the favorite, who won easily in the end by two lengths from Euterpe.

Lou Woods, a good thing, took the fourand-a-half-furiong scramble for 2-year-olds in easy fashion from the favorite, Bits.

C. A. TILLES RETURNS HOME. He Says There Will Be Plenty Horses at Little Rock.

He Says There Will Be Plenty of Horses at Little Rock.

C. A. Tilles returned from New Orleans last night. He came home to attend to-day's meeting of the track owners that refuse to submit to the authority of the Western Jockey Club. The meeting will take place here, and representatives from the Delmar track of St. Louis, the Clifton Park track at Little Rock, the Cumberland Park track at Mashville, the Newport track at Cincinnati, the Highland Park track at Detroit and the Fort Erie track at Buffalo are expected to take part in the conference at the Planters Hotel.

Mr. Tilles says the horsemen at Memphis and New Orleans are practically unanimous in their opposition to the disqualification rule of the Western Jockey Club.

"Every horseman at Memphis, with the exception of Schorr and Bennett, is with ux, and Tom Stevens was the only owner at New Orleans that refused to support us," said Mr. Tilles. "Schorr and Bennett are sore on us because we outbid them for the Memphis betting privileges. I have a petition, signed by such horsemen as Talbot Bros., Turney Bros., Robinson and Leach, T. P. Hayes, J. J. Marklein, W. W. Darden, W. L. Lansing, M. Goldblatt, Sidney Bender, W. C. Hutchinson, Paul Miles, John Call, R. J. Stewart and M. Stark, to race at Little Rock, which assures the success of the spring meeting of the Arkansas Jockey Club. We will have all the horses we want for the Little Rock Rmeeting. I shall leave for Little Rock Thursday night to make final arrangement for the opening of the track. William Bruen of St. Louis shall leave for Little Rock Thursday night to make final arrangement for the opening of the track. William Bruen of St. Louis has been engaged to act as starter there. "While at Memphis. I had a long talk with Colonel Montgomery, president of the New Memphis Jockey Club. We discussed the Western turf trouble in detail, and he told me that he colly wished he had heard our side of the proposition before he attended the last meeting of the Western Jockey Club."

HAGGIN'S RETURN TO THE TURF. Famous Breeder Will Have a String

It has been announced that Mars Cassidy, the well-known starter, who has been dropping the flag at the Bennings track, Washington, and on the Canadian circuit for three or four years, will do the same thing at Acueduct's spring meeting, succeding C. H. Pettingill, the former starter of the Queens County Jockey Club.

The Hoyden, the winner of the Lightning Stakes at New Orleans, only cost Hennen and Dave Morris, her owners, $500, but she has already earned more money than did Glenheim and Kentucky Colonel, two animals they paid more than $25,007 form the fall of $1858, and there is every indication that she is going to keep on winning.

William Lakeland has put Ogden, which he bought at the Marcus Daly sale, in training again, and has entered him in the Tobogsan and other handleaps at Morris Park. The horse is very sound, and as Lakeland trained him after he won the Futurity, he was well aware that he was getting a cheap race horse when he secured him for only $4.20. The horse has been used at the stud, of ccurse, still not overdone, and it should not prove prejudicial to him.

Catastrophe had no trouble to win the third from Diomed.

SEXUAL DEBIL

Cured in 30 to 90 Days. We want to talk or write to every man who is afflicted with Sexual Debillty and who feels that he is not up to the proper standard of health, vitality and manhood. Millions of promising young men are ruined through sexual ignorance, abuse, overwork and excesses; at 30 they are prematurely old and weak, and very few at 40 are enjoying perfect manhood. No man who has transgressed the laws of nature, who has been indiscreet in his youth or included in later excesses is safe until such time as the results of these errors have been removed or corrected. Neglect results in a comblete breakdown of the sexual, mental and physical powers. Our entire professional career has been devoted to the curing and building up of weak, despondent men, and we have gained a national reputation as being successful in the practice of our specialty. Our special treatment for weak men acts by overcoming the effects of former indiscretions; it strengthens the weak-ened seminal ducts; stops all losses and drains of vigor; restores the organs to their normal size and warmth; removes all reflex symptoms of disease and weakness, and you soon will regain that feeling of pride, confidence and power which are so precious to every man, and which invariably accompany good health and restored manhood. Avoid experiments and incompetent treatment. Do not trust in nature for a curre; but cast your modesty aside, and consult skilled, expert specialists, who can and will give you the quickest, safest, most modern and most reliable cure obtainable. We also cure to stay cured, VARICOCELE in 5 days, STRICTURE in 10 to 20 days, BLOOD POISON to 30 each of Witel Weaksesses and Diseases of Men.

VIM VIGOR VITALITY FOR MEN

RABOTEAU & CO. Broadway & Lucas Ave. St. Le

The recent sale of their horses to J. B. Haggin probably means the last of Eastin & Larabie as owners. A wonderfully successful combination they have been in the years they raced together. Eastin belongs to Kentucky, while Larabie halls from Deer Lodge, Mont. They first went Eastin 1891, with that good race horse. Poet Scout, by Longfellow-Gipsy. Their stable always has sheltered one horse of high class. After Poet Scout came Ben Hollady, and after Ben Hollady, Kinley Mack, so that they always had one horse they could send out to do battle with the best horses that could be started against him. Only two weeks have elapsed, however, since they sold their entire breeding establishment—brood mares and all—and now. With their horses in training gone, it looks as if they had grown weary in the struggles for turf prizes and decided to quit.

DAVIS ROTURNS FROM EUROPE. Completed Arrangements for an International Lawn Tennis

Dwight F. Davis of St. Louis, the donor of the International Lawn Tennis Championship Cup, has just returned to this country, after an extended tour through Great Britain and the Continent. During his trip abroad, Davis, besides resting and sightseeing, put in much of his time in the interest of lawn tennis and paid particular Great Britain and the Continent. During his trip abroad, Davis, besides resting and sightseeing, put in much of his time in the interest of lawn tennis, and paid particular attention to the details of the competition for the international championships this year. He reports that players in England and on the Continent are keenly interested in the international events, and, in fact, rank them ahead of our national event at Newport. He says, also, that as yet nothing definite had been decided as to the make-up of the visiting team, but the impression prevailed that the two Dohertys and Smith will be on the challenging team. At all events, he said, the team would, barring accident or unforeseen happenings, be composed of the best material.

During his stay in England Davis did much missionary work among the English players, and the differences that were said to exist between the forces were given needed explanation by him, and no longer exist. The matter of turf and the other things that go to influence the contest were thoroughly discussed, and it is among the possibilities that a ball closer to the size of the English sphere than ours is will be adopted for the tournament, and for those in ensuing years, are now completed and await only the signatures of the two associations. All the points that have been allowed for. The English association has been brought around to the American view of several important things.

In speaking of possible visitors the coming season, he said the great interest shown on the other side might result in several players besides the challenging team coming over, though of this he was not sure. Among those who may come are Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard, both players of worth, who would enter the open events.

Davis will probably return to England this spring and play at Wimbleton. Hol. combe Ward, his partner in doubles, may also go across. If he does, he and Davis will go in for the English doubles championship.

When a stricture is close to the neck of the bladder the risk of an operation is always greater and the percentage of fallures always higher. Mr. A. G. His home doctor had tried to cure him by operation, but failing in that he settled down to the regular use of a steel sound as the only treatment he knew of that could be of service. The result was indeed a marvel. He suffered no pain or distress while employing the Solvent-Alterans, and his progress was indeed most gratifying. In one month the Solvent-Alterans cured him. Five months later Mr. Vollmer reported that the results were permanent. He found the system perfectly safe; it was easier than the sound and surer in the result.
